I Am Thine, O Lord

Psalm 59

Deliver me, O God, from the enemies of my soul.

I am no longer afraid of men who stand in my way, even of those who obstruct Your purposes and who deceive their fellowmen with their arrogant and clever cliches.

They anger me, but they do not frighten me.

My pain and confusion come by way of my own weaknesses and faithlessness.

I strive for success and am fractured by failure.

I reach for ecstasy and am clobbered with depression.

I wait for guidance and Your heavens are gray with silence.

I ask for infilling and am confronted with emptiness.

I seek opportunities and run into stone walls.

I overcome these pernicious demons in the morning—only to face them again when day turns into night.

They refuse to die, these persistent devils.

They plague my days and haunt my nights and rob me of the peace and joy of God-motivated living.

And yet, O Lord, You have surrounded my life like a great fortress.

There is nothing that can touch me save by Your loving permission.
